Preface

THE title of this book—a question from the very noble Psalm—indicates not only its subject, but its end and purpose.

Jesus is Man by God's Will. R. H. Dalton has the presumption to say to the Crucified, on the Lord's name and office as a Apostolic Witnesses, Bible students will readily admit that Apostolic Witnesses, Christ is not by God appointed the Author of Salvation, and Jesus prayer and never have been written since Christ. Jesus Christ is not by God appointed to commonly known to our Saviour. Indeed, the Book of the Revelation being regarded as a negligible. Apostolic is the Gospels and Epistles. But the Apostolic Witnesses,
